

Baking Gingerbread

As part of our Design and Technology project, all of the year 2 children baked their own gingerbread.

Throughout this process, the children learned about where different ingredients originate from and discussed which equipment would be needed.

The children worked as a team to follow a recipe and created their own gingerbread, they weighed out different ingredients and became familiar with different units of measurement.

We also discussed the importance of hygiene when preparing food and spent time evaluating their gingerbread.

